The Solar Flower

The flower is so bright,
I feel it is right,
May it always shine,
I wish it could be mine!

The flower in blue, blue sky,
Where the highest birds fly,
Where the clouds float,
Where the wind is nice!

I pray in the morning,
When the flower blooms in the east and sets in west,
It is also very beautiful,
To look at the flower set!

Poem -- Ishaan Sharma Grade 3

Flowers

Greatest creation that God has made,
Soon it's life will fade.

Rose, lotus, marigold are the names
Which are rich and have a fame.

They are used to brighten a wedding day,
Or on a grave who died in may.

Husbands give to pamper their wives,
Others give to blossom their lives.

Available in all colors, red, blue, yellow,
Pick up one my dear fellow.

Life is short but full of grace,
When it comes in front
There's a big smile on the face.

Happiness

-Myra Pereira

1. What is happiness?

To me it is

My papa's Hug

My mama's smile

& a wag of my dog's tail that never fails

2. The shade from trees on a hot day,

The chirping of birds to make your Mood sway

The twinkling stars in the sky,

& the calmness of the waves on the beach where I lie.

3. Our family we must cherish like the hand – cooked meal we relish

Being together on festivals, birthdays & celebration

Is the beginning of a bond that will

Last for generations

We learn that happiness starts at home

To seek it far & wide we mustn't roam.

4. Why Dubai when we have Mumbai,

The city that never sleeps but protects & hold us safe is the promise it will always keep.

This will be our home even if our hearts decide its time to roam.

5. Happiness is being blessed to wake up every morning,
Happiness is being thankful for what we have & not yearning.
Happiness is a feeling that we can all have & share .
Happiness is spreading love, joy & peace & showing each other that we care.

6. Happiness does not choose,
But very easy it is to lose.
Those who have it in plenty, will have people seeking to steal it away like a bounty.
Let them try but hold on to it till you die.
When you are feeling blue,
Look no further cause happiness lies within you.
